

THIS ESSAY DEMONSTRATES THAT YAHUAH ALONE IS OUR SOURCE OF SALVATION.

In recent years, people of various age groups have increasingly sought baptism in the name of Christ. At the recent Baptize California event, about 8,000 individuals gathered at the Pacific Ocean and other venues statewide as part of the larger Baptize America initiative, which has seen unprecedented participation from public figures, including movie stars and YouTubers.

What does Yahuah convey regarding baptism, and is it part of His original plan for salvation?

This essay examines the facts recorded in the Torah, focusing on the original words of Yahuah, our Creator. It acknowledges the alterations made by the Roman Catholic Church to the Old Testament and their creation of the New Testament, as documented by the Church itself.

Key questions arise: Are both the Old and New Testaments the Word of Yahuah? Are church traditions aligned with His original words? If not, should they be rejected? What supports the claim that Yahuah inspired both Testaments without church alterations?

Wisdom involves understanding what one does not know and pursuing deeper insights. A wise person listens, asks questions, and observes thoughtfully, fostering learning without argument. True wisdom aims to connect, learn, and deepen understanding, aiding personal growth.

We invite you to engage in this crucial discussion, emphasizing that Yahuah is the sole source of salvation.

The primary goal for Christians is salvation, guided by the New Testament. This raises significant inquiries: Who decided which books were included in the Bible? Does the New Testament offer a means of salvation aligned with Yahuah's original will?

Given the church's alterations, can the Bible still be considered infallible? Notably, the New Testament was never included in the Dead Sea Scrolls. Why? If it was not part of the original writings, would it have been included?

Did Yahuah grant the Roman Catholic Church authority over the Scriptures? If not, what prompted its decisions?

The canonization process began with the Council of Rome under Pope Damasus I in 382, although efforts to determine the included texts started earlier. Was the process of canonization a smokescreen to conceal the amending of Rome's New Testament?

Let us explore these questions together, allowing Yahuah's original words to enhance our understanding.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST DILEMMA

The Seventh-day Adventists honor worship on the seventh day prescribed by the Creator of the Gregorian calendar. However, this calendar does not align with the original lunar-based calendar established by the Creator. Notably, Doug Batchelor and other SDA pastors acknowledge this inconsistency yet choose to overlook it. This raises questions about the Gregorian calendar as it may be seen as an attempt to erase Yahuah's calendation methods from collective consciousness.

The Roman Catholic Church has significantly contributed to this confusion. Yahuah, the Creator of all things, provided a celestial calendar for the world, but few adhere to it today. Critics argue that the calendar serves commercial purposes. Yet, it is essential to note that the Roman Catholic Church has named every day and month after pagan deities, compelling people to use these names contrary to Yahuah's command.

Exodus 23:13: And in all that I have said to you, take heed and make no mention of the name of other mighty ones; let it not be heard from your mouth.

We must lift up the name of Yahuah, which the Church has silenced. Scripture urges us to call upon His name, yet efforts continue to suppress it. In August 2008, the Roman Catholic Church issued a directive prohibiting the use of the name "Yahuah" in sacred music and public prayers, reflecting a long tradition of avoiding the divine name. This raises the question: Is this yet another tactic by the Church to erase Yahuah's teachings from human awareness?

Psalms 148:13: Let them praise the Name of Yahuah, For His Name alone is exalted, His splendor is above the earth and heavens.

FACTS ARE WHAT MATTER.

This essay does not condemn Catholic parishioners; rather, it challenges the Church's claim as the sole vicar of Christ and exclusive route to salvation. Yahuah, our Creator, has never granted such authority to the Roman Catholic Church, which has altered Yahuah's "Times and Laws," defying the warnings from Daniel and Isaiah.

The Roman Catholic Church warns that those who leave it will face eternal hellfire and lose their indulgences, obscuring the original plan for salvation and portraying the laws of Elohim as burdensome.

While many religions and civilizations have worshiped their own gods, this focus on the Roman Catholic Church stems from the Torah's warning against its alterations of Yahuah's times and laws. No other entity has so successfully misled the masses from the true ways of Yahuah.

We present historical facts alongside the opposing words of the Creator, affirming that He does not change and has never authorized the New Testament or other new means of salvation.

After offering just a few of the many facts and the actual words of Elohim, we leave it to you to determine whether you believe what is presented. There is no coercion; either choice will not lead to hell, as that threat is merely a scare tactic used by the Church to control its followers.

FORCING CHANGE WITHOUT AUTHORITY

The Roman Catholic Church has modified the calendar established by our Creator, most recently with the adoption of the Gregorian calendar by Pope Gregory. These alterations prompt concerns regarding the Church's fidelity to the original texts and meanings. The historical conflicts over Yahuah's original calendar have led to immense suffering among those who resisted these changes.

The Church has manipulated the masses throughout history, resulting in tragic family slaughters and the grief of countless mothers. This oppression has included the confiscation of homes and lands, furthering the Church's influence, exemplified by the exploitation of the remaining children in monastic settings who were molded into obedient parishioners.

In conclusion, regarding salvation, calendation, and the canonization of the Bible, the Church has strayed from our Creator's original decrees. Instead, it has imposed its calendar and a pagan deity, referred to as Jesus Christ, which is viewed as an abomination by Yahuah.

THE EVOLUTION OF JESUS CHRIST BY THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

The development of Jesus' identity was a gradual process influenced by theological debates, councils, and formal doctrines.

1st Century CE: The Earliest Depictions

The New Testament presents Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God, who performed miracles, died, and was resurrected.

However, Isaiah 45:21 states: Declare and bring near, let them even take counsel together. Who has announced this from of old? Who has declared it from that time? Is it not I, Yahuah? And there is no mighty one besides Me, a righteous Ėl and a Saviour, there is none besides Me.

The concept of BC and AD was established by a Catholic monk, Dionysius Exiguus, raising questions about the reasons for this chronological division. The only reason is that it points to and maintains focus on their pagan god, Jesus Christ.

LET'S DEFINE CHRISTIANITY:

Many Christians hold a cherished belief that God sent His Son to earth to save humanity from the consequences of its sins, for surety. A fundamental aspect of Christianity is the profound story of Jesus giving His life on the Cross, which we call the Crucifixion, followed by His rise from the dead on the third day, known as the Resurrection.

Influence of Rome on Christianity

Rome significantly shaped Christianity through theological decisions and the New Testament's establishment, notably following Constantine's conversion in 312.

2nd-3rd Centuries: Developing Christology

Early writers, such as Ignatius of Antioch, affirmed Jesus as both divine and human. The Council of Nicaea in 325 defined key theological concepts about Jesus' nature, while Athanasius compiled the first recognized list of the 27 New Testament books. These decisions contrast with Yahuah's teachings, opposing Elohim's intentions.

Council of Nicaea 325 CE:

Addressing the Arian controversy, the council affirmed Jesus' full divinity, formalized in the Nicene Creed.

First Council of Constantinople 381 CE:

This council further developed the Nicene Creed, emphasizing the Holy Spirit's divinity and supporting Christ's total divinity.

4th Century: The Great Ecumenical Councils

Council of Ephesus 431 CE:

Affirmed Mary as Theotokos, emphasizing Christ's unity.

Council of Chalcedon 451 CE:

Declared Jesus Christ as one person with two natures--divine and human--united "without confusion, change, division, or separation."

Subsequent Centuries:

The recognition of Jesus as fully God and fully human became orthodox doctrine within the Catholic Church, with ongoing theological exploration.

In summary, the desired outcome of the Catholic Church regarding Jesus Christ evolved through various councils and responses to challenges, culminating in the establishment of the Nicene and Chalcedonian definitions.

Throughout all the changes made by the Church, there was no inspiration from Yahuah, our Creator,
PLEASE allow that to sink in.

Given this evolution, how can anyone believe in the Bible's inspiration, infallibility, and inerrancy? The New Testament serves as a compilation that the Catholic Church uses to manipulate and guide the masses towards belief in their false god, Jesus Horus Christ, in whom no salvation can be found.

HOW CAN SUCH RAPID CHANGES OCCUR?

Humanity was once nurtured in a world governed by a divine cycle orchestrated by the Creator.

Isaiah 45:18 states, "For thus says Yahuah, who created the heavens, who formed the earth and made it; He established it; He did not create it empty, He formed it to be inhabited! I am Yahuah, and there is no other."

Given the Church's manipulative and coercive actions of canonization, can we truly regard what we have today as inspirational, infallible, and inerrant?

If you have not read Yahuah's warnings against the Church and understood the events thus far, you will see that His ways have not changed into what is now called the New Testament.

Understanding Yahuah's truths should dismantle the Church's imposed doctrines, leading us to search for His original ways, the true path to salvation.

What is the purpose of a New Testament messiah if the Old Testament, particularly the Torah, outlines Yahuah's perfect plan of salvation? Who governs the New Testament and humanity's salvation? The celebration of Easter, which signifies the resurrection of Jesus Christ—a pivotal event in Christianity—raises questions about its origins. The date of this celebration is disconnected from Yahuah's feast days, as it aligns with pagan Roman traditions.

Are you concerned about who authorized naming days and months after pagan gods and promoted beliefs such as hell, purgatory, and indulgences? Yahuah never authorized anything the Roman Church did! All this has come through the Roman Catholic Church, which is not rooted in Yahuah's teachings.

Why do Christians worship on Sun-day, which is associated with sun worship? Many are unaware that their choice of worship day is rooted in this association. This reality is evident in the Roman Catholic Church's decision to center Sunday worship and the sun in its worldview, placing the sun at the center of the universe, in contrast to the geocentric model affirmed in hundreds of biblical verses. Observing any Sunday mass reveals abundant sun symbolism.

Those who believe they can identify as Christians without acknowledging the Roman Catholic Church's influence are likely still entangled in its web of deception.

Have we heeded warnings about the immense influence shaping the New Testament? Was the canonization of the Torah authorized by Yahuah, and did He participate in subtracting specific texts in collaboration with the Roman Catholic Church? As referenced later in this essay, evidence proves He did not.

The teachings of our ancestors shape us, but we must acknowledge the potential distortions in the Church's history, a force we were cautioned about. Our silence regarding religion and politics often masks deeper motives. The questions posed here stem from the significant loss experienced by millions, as Daniel had warned.

ISAIAH 45:21, Declare and bring near, let them even take counsel together. Who has announced this from of old? Who has declared it from that time? Is it not I, Yahuah? And there is no mighty one besides Me, a righteous Ėl and a Saviour, there is none besides Me.

AGAIN and AGAIN

And there is no mighty one besides Me, a righteous Ėl and a Saviour, there is none besides Me.

A CALL FOR REFLECTION.

If you doubt the events stated above, consider the history of the Native Americans, who were forced into boarding schools starting in the mid-to-late 1800s. They lost their way of life and heritage, as children were separated from their families and stripped of their identities. The Roman Catholic Church played a significant role in imposing Catholicism on Indigenous peoples worldwide, striving to convert them to follow Christian beliefs.

In America, Major George W. Baird of the US Army declared, "There are but two goals for the Indians: civilization or annihilation." Richard Henry Pratt, a Protestant advocate for Christianity, famously said, "Kill the Indian in him, and save the man." He believed Indigenous peoples must abandon their tribal lifestyles and accept Christian values to be considered civilized, viewing them as 'savages' needing transformation.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

Consider whether the children of Yahuah were scattered to what is now known as North America. Near Albuquerque, New Mexico, lies the Decalogue Stone, inscribed with the Ten Commandments in the original Paleo-Hebrew script, suggesting early contact with Indigenous peoples before Christopher Columbus's arrival.

SIMILARLY, WHAT WAS THE TRUE TASK OF CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS?

Columbus set sail from Lisbon in 1476, backed by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, motivated by the Pope's desire for submission and the removal of our Creator's ways from humanity's consciousness. When Columbus reached the New World on October 12, 1492, he brought back news of lands occupied by peoples with differing beliefs. His religious devotion to the Pope influenced his journey, and he may have contributed to furthering the Pope's agenda to eliminate heresy among Native Americans.

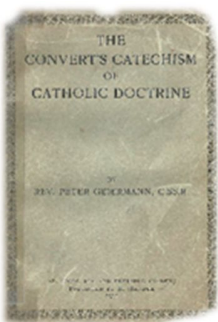

Research the dates and facts of the Inquisition to draw your own conclusions. It seems plausible that the scattering of the children of Israel to various nations was foretold in scripture, as indicated in Leviticus 26:33 and Deuteronomy 4:23-27. Reflect on what we've learned about Columbus's voyage, the Pope's inquisitions, and the church's attempts to convert those not adhering to Roman Catholic teachings.

This perspective is reinforced by how Columbus returned to Spain with treasure, spices, indigenous people, and stories of communities practicing different beliefs, which led to celebrations among the Spanish Court, as he confirmed the presence of those honoring Yahuah and challenging the church's theology based on the Pope's pagan Christian ideas.

Did the Church see an opportunity to convert millions?

PERSONAL EXPERIENCES.

In my quest for the truth concerning this topic, I visited the University of Aquinas library in Grand Rapids Michigan, to obtain two significant books: "The Convert's Catechism of Catholic Doctrine" and "Catechism of the Catholic Church." While searching for the library, I encountered a nun who told me, "We are all Christians my friend, we are all of Christ." Her words resonated with me, suggesting that anyone associated with the name 'Christ' is part of the Roman Catholic Church, sparking my curiosity.

This moment reminded me of when I was a 12-year-old boy at my Protestant church. I once asked my father why we recited the Apostles' Creed after every service, particularly the phrase: "I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church." I wondered why we asserted such beliefs, given that we did not identify as Catholics. My father's confused smile suggested he had no answer, marking a pivotal point in my faith journey.

Many people adhere to their parents' beliefs without questioning their validity. I remember my parents discussing the Trinity at my aunt and uncle's house, often concluding with, "We will have to wait until we get to heaven for the answers."

Ultimately, the reality is apparent: if you belong to any church in the name of Christ, or if you identify as a Christian, you are intrinsically connected to the Roman Catholic Church.

Joshua 24:15 And if it seems evil in your eyes to serve Yahuah, choose for yourselves this day whom you are going to serve, whether the mighty ones which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the mighty ones of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But I and my house, we serve Yahuah.

ARE YOU STILL WITH US?

If you are still reading, you are faced with a complex question: Do the similarities between the Christian church and the Roman Catholic Church suggest an intention to obscure our Creator? This inquiry requires serious consideration. Many avoid uncomfortable topics, but you seek truth rather than just a narrative. Pursue evidence diligently and ask essential questions, such as why the original Hebrew of Isaiah refers to a "young maiden" instead of a virgin, as the KJV does. Has the text been altered to suggest a future messiah?

Such changes reflect the Church's influence. Believers in a Creator who accept His Words as truth will find resonating arguments here.

This document contrasts Yahuah's teachings with those of the Roman Catholic Empire, which is often seen as lacking authenticity. It serves as a resource for those seeking credible information, while those favoring Church teachings may disregard it. Notably, the concept of Hell is a construct of the "Universal Church"; according to the Torah, such a place does not exist and is a fabrication by the Roman Empire to control the masses. Early Christian clergy plagiarized and altered the original Hebrew text of the Torah to support narratives such as the virgin birth, thereby excluding many apocryphal texts from canonization. Nevertheless, the Torah reveals essential truths about Yahuah.

Jeremiah 8:8,9 How do you say, 'We are wise, and the Torah of Yahuah is with us'? But look, the false pen of the scribe has worked falsehood. The wise shall be put to shame, they shall be broken down and caught. See, they have rejected the word of Yahuah, so what wisdom do they have?

THE KNOWLEDGE YOU WERE NOT ALLOWED TO ACQUIRE.

The exclusion of the Book of Enoch and others from the biblical canon reflects the Church's effort to alter, hide, and discredit, insisting the public would not be able to understand the original Words of Yahuah. Early Christians initially viewed Enoch's writings as authoritative.

However, as Christianity spread through the Roman Empire, church leaders needed to define core beliefs and establish boundaries within the faith.

The Book of Enoch depicts the Watchers rebelling against Yahuah and facing punishment, portraying angels as fallible. This contrasts with the later Christian view of angels as obedient messengers. Early Church Fathers, such as Augustine of Hippo, believed that human sin stems from free will, whereas the Book of Enoch suggests that humanity may be a victim of its own downfall. This perspective challenges the Church's mission to promote salvation through Christ.

Additionally, Church leaders feared that acknowledging Enoch could empower heretical sects, confuse believers, and undermine the Church's authority as the sole guardian of salvation.

PURSUING TRUTH CAN BE A LONELY JOURNEY.

Traditions shape our beliefs, providing comfort and familiarity. However, questioning and redefining these norms can be daunting, often leading to a reluctance to let go of traditions that may not align with Yahuah's original teachings. Confronting change may seem more challenging than maintaining the status quo.

It's crucial to recognize that Yahuah's true ways often differ from popular beliefs. Following His path might lead to losing friends who disagree with your choices, but embracing His teachings offers a life that transcends this troubled world. Be aware that claims of an everlasting hell by the Church are lies designed to control those who stray.

Is there hope for those who follow Yahuah? Yes! The Torah provides clear answers, offering guidance beyond traditional beliefs.

A SHORT LINGUISTIC LANDSCAPE OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.

The choice of Greek as the language of the New Testament often raises questions. In the Eastern Empire, especially in Greece and the Near East, Greek was the predominant language for literature and trade. Even after the fall of the Western Roman Empire, Greek culture continued to hold significance in the Byzantine Empire, which was heavily influenced by it. Consequently, Greek manuscripts formed the foundation of the New Testament, with the works of Flavius Josephus notably influencing the development of these manuscripts.

THE EVOLUTION OF FAITH: UNDERSTANDING THE CHANGES IN THE CHURCH.

As we read, let's consider one question: Why were these changes made? The straightforward answer is that as the Church evolved, it removed our Creator's original ways from humanity's consciousness. This suppression of vital topics was orchestrated by a single entity, specifically the Roman Catholic Church, as warned by Daniel and Isaiah. This Church altered the laws of Yahuah, leading to the adoption of the Gregorian calendar, which took over three hundred years and countless lives to impose. In contrast, Yahuah offered a simple calendar for His people, including their Feast days.

Furthermore, the Roman Catholic Church is the only entity that has altered the Ten Commandments, notably removing the second commandment and doubling the tenth, as stated in Daniel 7:25.

Concerning Isaiah 7

Isaiah's Prophecy:

The prophecy from Isaiah 7 refers to a child who will signify the downfall of the enemies of Judah, the kings of Syria and northern Israel, before he reaches maturity.

Butter and Honey Sign:

The child eating butter and honey symbolizes his ability to distinguish good from evil, offering hope during a crisis.

Historical Background:

During this time, Jerusalem faced threats from surrounding kingdoms, with King Ahaz portrayed as wicked and politically strained due to these alliances.

Emmanuel's Significance:

The name Emmanuel, meaning "Yahuah is with us," highlights His presence during immediate troubles, emphasizing that the prophecy is not about a distant future.

No other entity has changed both "Times and Laws" as Daniel warned they would.

CONCLUSION

The above argues that Jesus Horus Christ is a false pagan god and a construct of the Roman Catholic Church, which fails to offer true salvation according to Yahuah, the Creator. Worshipping this figure is compared to praying to inanimate materials, as its statues are typically made of cement.

Exodus 20:3, You have no other mighty ones against My face. You do not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of that which is in the heavens above, or which is in the earth beneath, or which is in the waters under the earth, you do not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, Yahuah your Elohim am a jealous Ėl, visiting the crookedness of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing loving-commitment to thousands, to those who love Me and guard My commands.

Pope Leo XIV, aligning with Pope Francis, emphasizes Jesus Christ's central role in salvation, presenting the crucified Christ as the pathway to rebirth and resurrection, insisting that Christians attain salvation through the Cross, thus maintaining the ongoing lie that the Church gave substance to. What else would be expected?

The spread of Christianity is linked to Constantine, who converted in 312 AD after experiencing a vision before the Battle of the Milvian Bridge, where he saw a cross in the sky with the phrase "In hoc signo vinces" meaning "In this sign, you will conquer". This vision contributed to Christianity's growth and its legal recognition in the Roman Empire by 313 CE.

However, the Roman Catholic Church has had a detrimental influence on the portrayal of Jesus Christ, controlling narratives from his birth to death, burial, and resurrection, ultimately verifying that the Church does not, nor can it, offer any means of salvation to its followers.

There is only one source of salvation: being in covenant with Yahuah, our Creator. Only then can one achieve salvation through the exclusive means outlined in His Torah.

Yahuah alone is our sole means of salvation; all other entities are false gods. He has not given the world an only begotten son or a holy spirit, nor has any entity died on a cross for our sins. The Roman Catholic Church magnificently fabricated the New Testament. It altered specific passages from the Torah, selectively choosing other parts from the Torah to lend validity to their New Testament messiah. All of this is done for a singular reason: to remove the ways of our Creator from the minds of all humanity. Sadly, they have been largely successful, as the "world wanders after the beast."

All the verses below are from the Torah that affirm that Yahuah alone provides salvation and that there is none other. Furthermore, Yahuah never intended for a "New Testament" to be written, as He warned against it.

The Roman Catholic Church controls every aspect of Jesus Horus Christ: his birth, his fragmented bloodline, death, Easter, surety, the concept of transubstantiation, and more, you name it. The Church has proven countless ways that this JC is undeniably Rome's fabricated false god.

Surety involves taking on the responsibility for others, initially referring to cosigning debts. In early Christian communities, the concept was linked to Christ's sacrifice. Still, the Roman Catholic Church formalized and expanded it through sacramental theology, portraying the Church as the body of Christ, as one able to forgive sins and ultimately, to die for another.

Proverbs warns against becoming surety for others, yet the Church influenced the perception of surety, asserting that Jesus Christ would serve as a replacement in death. Despite Yahuah's warning against this practice, the Roman Catholic Church promoted the belief that their deity, Jesus Christ, would die for humanity's sins.

In plain language, Jesus Christ is, without question, a product of the Roman Catholic Church with no means of salvation, and not a single aspect of it is of our Creator Yahuah.

It imposes a false hope for salvation on the world; they have every human on this earth uttering the names of their false pagan gods of the week and month. Yet, they enforce silence on all their parishioners by suppressing the one name we should be calling on: the name of Yahuah.

Let's simplify this together!

According to the One who created everything, Yahuah alone is the one true source of salvation. In the many verses that follow, Yahuah insists that He has no son or Holy Spirit, reiterating that He alone is our only means of salvation. To attain eternal life, we need to turn away from false gods and wholeheartedly embrace Yahuah's covenant as outlined in His Torah.

This paper barely scratches the surface of how the Roman Catholic Church has altered the original ways in which it was once created. You can be sure they have changed the entire world, influencing every aspect of your daily life. Do your due diligence; read the Torah IN CONTEXT. Stop listening to those seminary-schooled so-called preachers who have no desire to learn of the true ways of Yahuah. Turn away from this blasphemous Roman god, and then seek the true ways of Yahuah that He has always had in place.

NOW THE FINAL WORDS, THOSE OF YAHUAH, OUR ONLY SOURCE OF SALVATION.

THE VERSES BELOW CLEARLY ILLUSTRATE THE SINGULARITY OF YAHUAH,

SHOWING THAT THERE IS NO ONE BESIDES HIM.

DEUTERONOMY 32:17,

They slaughtered to demons – not Eloah – Mighty ones they did not know, New ones who came lately, (like a J.C.) Which your fathers did not fear.

Yahuah condemns human sacrifice, such as a pagan JC, especially of children, as an abomination. Several passages explicitly forbid this practice and warn against imitating the Canaanites. For instance, Jeremiah 7:30-31 states that Yahuah did not command such sacrifices, and Deuteronomy 12:29-31 warns against the practice of child sacrifices in the Canaanite tradition.

So why would Yahuah send a son to be sacrificed for the sins of others? He did not!

ISAIAH 43:10-12

You are My witnesses," declares Yahuah, "And My servant whom I have chosen, so that you know and believe Me, and understand that I am Yahuah, Before Me there was no Ėl formed, nor after Me there is none. I am Yahuah, and besides Me there is no savior.

Please note the criteria in Yahuah's Words.

2 CHRONICLES 7:14

and My people upon whom My Name is called, shall humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their evil ways, then I shall hear from the heavens, and forgive their sin and heal their land.

This does NOT mean turning to a false JC Roman god, it means directing our prayers to Elohim alone.

And in all that I have said to you take heed. And make no mention of the name of other mighty ones, let it not be heard from your mouth.

We must recognize that Rome's JC is simply another Roman god to whom the world has bowed.

EXODUS 20:3 - 5

You have no other mighty ones against My face. You do not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of that which is in the heavens above, or which is in the earth beneath, or which is in the waters under the earth, you do not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, Yahuah your Elohim am a jealous Ė, visiting the crookedness of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me.

Elohim, our Creator, has repeatedly stated that He will never send another means of salvation; there is no other. His only "sons" are those who keep His statutes and do not bow down or pray to other gods, including this Jesus Horus Christ, whom the world has unfortunately embraced.

1. There is no Jesus Christ as a Passover lamb; that concept is an abomination to Yahuah.
2. There is no Jesus Christ as a cornerstone; that belief is also an abomination to Yahuah.
3. No salvation can be found in this pagan Jesus Christ; it is an abomination to Yahuah.

Please consider and study the above verses in context. It is essential to understand that it is the Roman Catholic Church that controls every aspect regarding this pagan god that the world calls their salvation.

The ways of Yahuah remain unchanged; it is the Church that has fabricated a false god. The Church exerts control over most aspects of our lives, including the Gregorian calendar, land laws, and the names of the days of the week and months. This manipulation also extends to the timing of JC's death and resurrection, among other things.

HOSEA 13:4

But I am Yahuah your Elohim since the land of Mitsrayim, and an Elohim besides Me you shall not know, for there is no Saviour besides Me.

Repeating - for there is no Saviour beside me.
